

Now that we have our laptops, we can easily access the internet and view and edit information. The laptops also allow us to take notes that our teacher says about the subject. It is also easier to write notes and share information between people, keeping in time with the technological advancements of this world.